St. Mary Magdalene– St. Justin Martyr School:

- Sisters of Notre Dame of Chardon, Ohio serve on the administrative and teaching staff
- Classes are provided for students from Pre-School through grade 8. The average class size for the 2007-08 school year is 19 students
- A well established library and a Macintosh Lab with 33 computers and an "Activeboard", support instruction. Networked computers and Active Boards are in use in the classrooms. On-line resources are available to the teachers and students.
- Special teachers are employed for instruction in Physical Education, Choral Music and Bell Choir.

- Spanish Language instruction, K-8 is provided by a licensed teacher from Amigos and More, Inc.
- Co-curricular instrumental music lessons and band class are provided by Music Alliance, Inc. for students in grades 4 through 8 who wish to join.
- A full annual standardized testing program is administered in compliance with state testing mandates and diocesan guidelines. Kindergarten readiness is evaluated through the Early Prevention of School Failure Assessment. Our average student performance is consistently at or above grade level on these nationally normed tests.
- A Daily Hot Lunch Program is available. Participation in the National School Lunch Program provides assistance for financially eligible families.
- Busing is provided for eligible students by both the Willoughby-Eastlake and Mentor Schools' Transportation Department.

- Auxiliary Services provide:
  1. academic support for students with diagnosed learning disabilities and those qualifying for High Intensity Reading (Title 1), Enrichment and Remedial Tutoring
  2. speech therapy and psychological services, a school nurse and health aide, and a textbook and services clerk
  3. books, computers and software, math and science materials for use by all the students
- Before and After School Care is available.
- An after school Drama Club is moderated by SMM-SJM teachers for students in grades 7 through 8.
- A School Newspaper is written and published monthly by students in grades 5 through 8 and is moderated by faculty members.
- CYO Athletics, led by the SMM and SJM Athletic Associations, give our boys and girls many opportunities for competitive sports.
- The SMM-SJM Parent Association, Athletic Associations and numerous volunteer opportunities involve parents and community members in their children's education.

In January 2006, the Parishes of St. Mary Magdalene and St. Justin Martyr announced the consolidation of their parish schools and the 2006-2007 school year saw the birth of the new school: St. Mary Magdalene–St. Justin Martyr School (SMM-SJM). Both parishes feel strongly that the Christian education and formation of our young people is the responsibility of the entire parish.
